

New Student Orientation

New Minot State University students (freshmen and transfer) are required to complete a new student orientation. To facilitate the completion of this requirement, the campus will hold orientation events during the summer and before the spring semester. These events will introduce students to the University through information sessions, a campus tour, academic advising, and with the student registering for classes. Information about orientation events is sent electronically to all students who have been admitted to the University.