

Multicultural Support Services

The Native American Cultural Center is located on the third floor of the Student Center and provides supportive services to Native American students at MSU.