

Film Studies

This is an interdisciplinary minor in which students focus on film from various perspectives. Students learn to appreciate film as a unique art by studying its history, appreciating its cultural influences in time and place, critiquing its effects and styles, and understanding the creation of visual choices.

Film Studies Minor

Required Course:		3
ENGL 225	Introduction to Film
Select 5 of the Following:		15
ART 180	Digital Photography
FREN 220	French Film
GERM 220	German Film
SPAN 320	Hispanic Cinema
COMM 317	Rhetorical Theory
ENGL 270	Foundations in Literary Analysis
ENGL 322	Am Dialects in Lit and Media
ENGL 324	Rhetoric of Everyday Life
ENGL 333	Shakespeare in Film
ENGL 334	Film Directors
ENGL 335	Film Genres
ENGL 355	Age of Shakespeare
FREN 343	Contemporary Culture of the French-Speaking World
LEAD 211	Leadership in the Movies
SPAN 343	Contemporary Hispanic Culture
THEA 161	Acting I
THEA 385	Directing
THEA 450	Contemporary Drama
Total Hours		18